

Name: _____

CHAPTER SEVEN

Main Classroom Activity

In two groups, one group will defend the idea of a perpetual universe, and the other will defend the idea that the universe had a beginning. Spend 10–15 minutes formulating scientific, philosophical, and theological arguments for your group's position, and then select a representative to debate the issue in front of all the participants.

You may use the space below to write your notes.
