

Chapter 5 Vocabulary Review

LIGHT IN THE DARK AGES

Match the following vocabulary words to their definitions. You should be able to do this with your book closed.

_____ vow	_____ Allah	_____ cenobitical life
_____ Hajj	_____ Kaaba	_____ Scriptorium
_____ Huns	_____ hermit	_____ Koran
_____ Islam	_____ nuncio	_____ Hejira
_____ jihad	_____ diocese	_____ Lectio Divina
_____ jizya	_____ Shahada	_____ Ora et Labora
_____ Laus Dei (Opus Dei)	_____ Ramadan	_____ monasticism
_____ Servus Servorum Dei	_____ Ecumenical Patriarch

- A. "There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is his prophet."
- B. The Pope's personal ambassador.
- C. "Submission."
- D. Someone who withdraws from the world to live a life of prayer and asceticism.
- E. Motto of the Benedictine Monks: "Prayer and Work."
- F. Where the ancient writings of the Greco-Roman world were preserved.
- G. The title that Pope St. Gregory the Great took for himself.
- H. A tax that Jews and Christians had to pay Muslim oppressors in order to practice their faith.
- I. They smelled bad.
- J. The prayerful, reflective reading of Scripture.
- K. "Recitation."
- L. The four hours a day that Benedictine monks spent in prayer.
- M. A solemn promise made by a person to practice virtue or a good deed.
- N. Muslim holy month.
- O. The style of monastic life that is lived in community.
- P. The large black stone that is the focus of the Muslim pilgrimage to Mecca.

- Q. This marks the beginning of the Muslim calendar.
- R. The territorial division of the Catholic Church that was adapted from the Roman Empire.
- S. A way of life apart from the world characterized by asceticism, self-denial, prayer, and a fixed rule.
- T. Arabic word for "God."
- U. The pilgrimage to Mecca required of all Muslims to be made at least once in their life.
- V. Holy war waged by Muslims in the name of religion.
- W. The title adopted by the patriarch of Constantinople.