

SCORE _____

100

Name _____

Date _____

Hour _____

Chapter 6 Quiz: The Consecrated Life

SECTION A: TRUE OR FALSE

(5 POINTS EACH)

1. _____ Commitment to living the evangelical counsels is central to the consecrated life.
2. _____ The evangelical counsel of poverty refers primarily to a lack of material goods.
3. _____ The practice of obedience by people in consecrated life is expressed primarily by submission to the local bishop.
4. _____ The evangelical counsels remain the same, though the structures and forms accommodating their living out may change.
5. _____ Monk comes from a Greek word meaning “alone.”

SECTION B: FILL IN THE BLANKS

(5 POINTS EACH)

6. The evangelical counsels are lived ordinarily within a particular religious or _____ institution.
7. Married people entering consecrated life make promises of _____ chastity.
8. The lives of consecrated people bear witness to the Gospel values taught by Christ, especially those embodied in the _____.
9. Religious institutes may be characterized as either _____ or apostolic.
10. According to St. John Paul II, “by the profession of the evangelical counsels, the characteristic features of Jesus . . . are made constantly ‘_____’ in the midst of the world.”

SECTION C: MULTIPLE CHOICE

(5 POINTS EACH)

11. As a Dominican, Ven. Samuel Charles Mazzuchelli . . .
  - a. not only renounced his inheritance but also left his homeland to serve as a missionary in South America.
  - b. developed texts in Native American languages to teach indigenous peoples the Catholic faith.
  - c. founded an order of lay preachers.
  - d. ministered to remote communities that had not seen a priest in years.
  - e. Both B and D are correct.

12. Consecrated people are characterized by all the following except . . .
  - a. having St. John the Baptist as a model of consecration and discipleship.
  - b. bearing witness to Christ and having a paschal aspect to their lives.
  - c. the “eschatological dimension” to their lives.
  - d. devotion to the evangelical counsels.
  - e. None of the above is correct.

13. Each of the following is a major rule governing religious life except the Rule of . . .
  - a. St. Benedict
  - b. St. Ambrose
  - c. St. Francis
  - d. St. Basil
  - e. St. Augustine

14. Each of the following types of community is per se a part of consecrated life except a . . .
  - a. lay religious institute.
  - b. society of apostolic life.
  - c. secular institute.
  - d. women’s religious institute.
  - e. Both A and C are correct.

15. All of the following are true about Ven. Solanus Casey except that he . . .
- a. was strictly limited in how he could exercise his priestly faculties.
  - b. acted on orders from the Blessed Virgin Mary.
  - c. was kept from the public and helped people remotely through prayer.
  - d. credited God with all of the miracles attributed to his intercession.
  - e. All of the above are true.

SECTION D: MATCHING

(5 POINTS EACH)

Clerical	Carthusian	Carmelite
Mendicant	Augustine	Ecclesial
Basil	Apostolic	Eremitic
Levitical	Benedict	Nazirite

16. _____ religious institutes are those founded to be composed primarily of priests and governed by them.
17. Because they depended on alms for support, the Franciscans and Dominicans are called _____ orders.
18. In the Old Testament some men consecrated themselves to God, either perpetually or temporarily, by taking the _____ vow.
19. The _____ order originated in the Holy Land and later relocated to Europe.
20. The Rule of St. _____ was remarkable for its balanced but structured discipline.